

Education and R&D Policy Forum

Objectives

- 1) To present current status and stimulus impact on the sustainability of education and R&D as well as review and discussion on their policies, and
- 2) To promote opinion exchange and mutual opportunities for creation of sustainable growth in the next decade in both the U.S and Korea.

Scope

This forum will focus on advances and sustainability in the Education and Research and Development in the next decade. Policies by the Government, Industry and Academia will be presented by leaders in Korea and US and discussed in panel at the end of Forum.

Topics

- 1) Sustainable Education Policies
- 2) Sustainable R&D Policies and Stimulus Impact Review
- 3) Sustainability for the Next Decade in Education and R&D

Symposium Chair and Co-Chairs & Committee Members

Symposium Chair
Saeyoung Nate Ahn (Fuzbien Technology Institute)
Symposium Co-Chairs
United States	Korea
Director of Education	Se Jung Oh (Seoul National University)
Panel Committee
(Dartmouth University) (Yale University) (Washington, DC Education Department) Education, AAOS)	Chan Mo Park (S&T Special Advisor, ROK) Se Jung Oh (Seoul National University) Si-Joong Kim (Former S&T Minister, ROK) Jae-Yoon Park (Former Commerce Minister) TaeJin Kang (Dean, Seoul National Univ.)
Advisory Committee
United States	Korea
	Education Vice Minister S&T Special Advisor Science and Tech. Vice Minister